AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Annette M. Rasor and Doctor Robert W. Rasor.

March 26, 1964
[H. R. 8280]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Congress hereby finds that, on September 14, 1962, while Mrs. Annette M. Rasor and her husband, Doctor Robert W. Rasor, were occupying quarters assigned to him as medical officer in charge of the Public Health Service hospital at Lexington, Kentucky, Mrs. Rasor, without any fault on her part, sustained severe injuries causing permanent and total disability (including paralysis of her arms, legs, and various organs) when shot in the neck by a psychotic former patient of the hospital, following a course of events which commenced when the assailant in a threatening and irrational manner demanded to see a former medical officer in charge of the hospital, whom he believed to be occupying such quarters; and further finds that the shooting occurred because, in the deranged mind of the assailant the Rasors were identified with the hospital administration and the authority of the United States.

Annette M. and
Dr. Robert W.
Rasor.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, appropriations available to the Public Health Service for furnishing hospitalization and medical care for dependents of commissioned officers of the Public Health Service shall be available, in accordance with this section, to pay for medical services, appliances, and supplies on account of the injuries sustained by Mrs. Annette M. Rasor on September 14, 1962, or the disability arising as the result of such injuries. Insofar as practicable, the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service is authorized and directed to provide such medical services, appliances, and supplies in the facilities of the Public Health Service or otherwise, including appropriate arrangements for procurement thereof. Doctor Robert W. Rasor or Mrs. Rasor shall, further, be entitled to reimbursement, from such appropriations, for any expenses for medical services, appliances, and supplies heretofore or hereafter incurred by either of them (and not provided by the Public Health Service) on account of such injuries or disability, if found necessary and reasonable by the Surgeon General. As used in this Act, the term "medical services, appliances, and supplies" includes, but is not limited to, medical and surgical services, drugs and devices as defined by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, physical therapy and rehabilitation services, hospitalization, private duty nursing (including practical nursing), nursing home care, transportation of Mrs. Rasor between hospitals or between hospital and home by such mode of transportation (including ambulance service) as may be medically indicated, and transportation of physicians and other medical personnel for purposes of examining and treating Mrs. Rasor.

52 Stat. 1040.
21 USC 301.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Doctor Robert W. Rasor the sum of $750 for the period prior to July 1, 1963, and thereafter, so long as Mrs. Annette M. Rasor shall live, a monthly payment, to be paid in advance, which the Surgeon General finds reasonably necessary for employing a housekeeper and for other household expenses (except expenses for medical services, appliances, and supplies) attributable to her incapacity and her care at home: Provided, That the total of such payments shall not, in any year, exceed $6,000: Provided further, That, if Doctor Rasor predeceases her, such monthly payments shall thereafter be made to Mrs. Rasor or, for her use and benefit, to such other person as the Surgeon General may designate, so long as she is cared for at home. The Secretary of the Treasury shall likewise, upon her death, pay the funeral and burial expenses of Mrs. Rasor in an amount not to exceed $800 if the Surgeon General finds that her death was causally related to the injuries sustained as a result of the shooting on September 14, 1962.

SEC. 4. The Surgeon General is authorized to delegate any of his functions under this Act to any officer or employee of the Public Health Service.
